Trash Contractors May Bid 2 Ways

It's combustible rubbish contract time again. The City Council this week ordered the advertising for bids for the city's contract covering the disposal of trimmings and other combustible rubbish. Councilmen, however, authorized a departure from other years in the method of bidding. Rubbish contractors may make alternate bids.

Around the Square

Sierra Madreans in the northern sections of town have been forced to sit through unscheduled "concerts" several nights during the past week.

The not-very-musical din is caused by packs of yowling coyotes, apparently forced by snow and floods from their mountain homes.

Residents on Sunnyside, Toyon Road, Elm and Carter have reported hearing the discordant yipping. Dogs in the neighborhood generally join in on the choruses, one household reported.

Harold Roberts of Roberts Market was seen several times this week, manipulating a feather duster and busily sorting canned goods. His explanation: "Mama has got me back at work again."

Tut! Tut! Senator Dilworth. You shouldn't dangle prepositions.

Elsewhere in this sheet you will find a story about State Sen. Nelson Dilworth's third prize-winning essay, entitled, "What Is Our Constitution For?"

That's not too grammatical for the man who is chairman of the State Senate Investigating Committee on Education. A fine point, perhaps? Perhaps.

Come now, folks. Surely we can assemble a little more scrap metal than the skimpy 65 pounds now perched on the lot east of the Woman's Club. When the drive started we had visions of a pile surpassing in height the clubhouse itself. Let's all try a little harder this week, how about it?

SCOUTS LAUNCH PAPER DRIVE

Wait! Don't burn them! Sierra Madre Boy Scouts need all those old newspapers.

They currently are conducting a paper drive to raise funds for summer camping. If you have old papers, call either Mrs. Willis, CUster 5-4319, or Mrs. Armstrong, CUster 5-6279, during the day; or Mrs. Brunstad, CUster 5-6701, or Mrs. Bochman, CUster 5-1813, evenings.

Dimes March Aid Called Imperative

By ELIZABETH STEINBERGER
529 Mariposa

The need for every one to contribute to the March of Dimes is imperative. Research must be carried on so this terrible disease can and will be stamped out. It would be an unusual family financially able to pay for the long and expensive care of a polio victim. Our dimes help more than we know. When we think of polio we think of crippled children, a heart-breaking thought. My appeal is made on behalf of the fathers and mothers at Rancho Los Amigos confined in iron lungs, completely paralyzed. Hour after hour, day after day, month after month, they lie there; will they again live an active life? These whom I see each week could have been your neighbor and friend: Jane, mother of three children. Virginia, mother of two children. Margaret, mother of five-year-old twins. Mary, mother of four, who Besides bidding for a contract with the city, such as the present one with John Avedeslan, contractors may offer a bid on the so-called franchise system of rubbish pickup.

Under the franchise system, such as is used in Arcadia, rubbish collectors do not enter into a contract with the city, but contract with individual householders for the pickup service. A franchise is given by the city to allow the contractor to operate.

Councilman Henry Korsmeier pointed out that a number of residents in Sierra Madre have no combustible rubbish, "but they have to pay for the pickup service anyway."

City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn remarked that the franchise system works "very well" in Arcadia.

In urging that advertisements for bids be sent out right away, Councilman Noren Eaton said:

"I am reminded of the predicament we were in last year. When the council waited too long, he said, 'we had to operate the pickup for two months ourselves.'"

The contract with Mr. Avedeslan expires on Feb. 28.

Windows Broken At Weir House

Unidentified vandals were blamed last weekend for the breaking of three windows at the water department's weir house at the north end of Woodland Drive.

Fred Lewis, city pump operator, told police he saw three boys, about 15 years of age, leave hastily when he approached the house Friday. He expressed the belief that they might have returned later to break the windows.

Hikers Warned Of Hazardous Trail Condition

Hikers were warned today that portions of Mount Wilson Trail are in hazardous condition, as a result of the heavy rains last week.

Calling attention to the danger were Mr. and Mrs. Alan C. Macauley, who live on the trail.

Most hazardous spot lies at a point approximately 1½ miles up the trail from Miramonte, the Macauleys said. There, a large boulder that formerly supported the narrow ledge has given way.

"It's only a matter of time before the trail itself caves in," Mr. Macauley declared.

PERKING UP the scrap metal display in the City Hall Council Chambers are two city secretaries, Mrs. Joseph Murphy (left) and Mrs. Robert Travis. The women ask Sierra Madreans to search through attics, garages and yards for salvageable metal for the city's Scrap Metal Drive. The display at the City Hall, prepared by the water department, shows what types of metals are needed and how they can be converted into needed water department equipment. One half of the table contains samples of scrap metal turned in by residents; the other displays the finished equipment. Metal may be turned in at the scrap heap on the lot east of the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard. S. M. NEWS Photo.

Apathy Amazes Scrap Drive Men

Results to date in Sierra Madre's Scrap Metal Drive have been virtually nil, disappointed city officials reported yesterday. On the lot east of the Woman's Clubhouse were approximately 60 pounds of donated iron and about 5 pounds of brass. "If you look closely enough you can just about see that there really is something there," Water Superintendent Al Freeland remarked, somewhat sarcastically.

Spread over a population of nearly 7500, that would average a minute fraction of an ounce per resident, it was pointed out.

City officials asked again that Sierra Madreans search through their homes and yards for salvageable metal. A scrap metal heap is being formed in many cities throughout the nation.

"This is no money-making promotion," emphasized Mr. Freeland. "It is an attempt to get discarded scrap metal back into circulation and head off critical shortages of steel and other metals. Defense production will lag if unused metal is not brought in to relieve the shortage."

Residents may donate their metal — steel, iron, copper, brass, lead, zinc and tin — at the city-owned lot east of 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

ARC Chapter Slates Annual Dinner Meet

Rollin Bach, manager of the Long Beach Red Cross Chapter, will be guest speaker at the annual meeting, Monday, Jan. 28, of the Sierra Madre Red Cross Chapter.

Another feature of the evening will be the showing of the film, "Blood and Bullets," which tells the story of blood transfusions from the moment they are given by American donors to the time they are used to save lives in Korea.

Business of the evening will include the election of eight ARC Board members.

Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary of the local chapter, said the general public is invited to both the dinner and program. The dinner will begin at 6:30 at the Woman's Clubhouse. Mrs. Peterson is in charge of reservations.

Merchants Plan Breakfast Meet

Men and women of the Sierra Madre Businessmen's Association will meet for breakfast next Wednesday, Jan. 30, according to officers of the group.

The meeting will be held at Tiny's Restaurant, beginning at 8 a.m.

OLD YULE CARDS MAY SAVE LIVES OF INDIANS

Now that the holidays are over, turn in all your used Christmas cards to the Don Jackson Men's Store, 18 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

The old greeting cards (birthday cards are OK too) will help provide the rice to keep "untouchables" of India alive.

Peter Caironi, a missionary of N. Malabar, Cherukunnu, India, and his helpers will remake these cards — inscribed and battered as they may be — into beautiful new ones to be sold. The missionary will use the cash to buy rice to keep India's lowly "untouchables" alive.

As a result of this care given them, these starving people will receive "caste" and no longer be outcasts among their countrymen.

Mr. Jackson has said he will foot the bill of shipping cards to the missionary in India.

Rain Keeps Out P-TA Speaker

Sierra Madre P-TA's meeting developed into a general business discussion Wednesday night when the scheduled speaker was unable to make it into town because of the heavy rains.

Guest speaker was to have been Col. Alan H. Westervelt (USA-retired), who is active in the Pasadena Branch of the United Nations. His announced topic was "The United Nations to Date."

Approximately 50 people braved the storm to attend the meeting.

Schools Defy Rain Storm

Sierra Madre City School and Ascension Parish Day School were two of the few schools in the valley to remain open Friday, Jan. 18, when most were closed following the big storm.

St. Rita's School, however, did not convene for classes in view of the threat of more rain. Pasadena schools and several other districts were closed.

Al Freeland Is Named Water Chief

The position of city water superintendent was created by the City Council Tuesday night, and Al Freeland was appointed to fill it.

The veteran water department employee was appointed upon the recommendation of Councilman Lawrence Washburn, who said Mr. Freeland is "in all ways competent."

Mr. Freeland has been serving the city as assistant water superintendent. The job created Tuesday night calls for a salary of $350 a month.

Councilman Washburn suggested the new position in view of recent increases in the scope of the water department — specifically, the operation of the water conservation project.

Mr. Washburn also recommended that "immediate steps be taken to fill" the now-vacant position of assistant water superintendent.

Mayor Calls Civil Defense Corps Meeting

Sierra Madre's Civil Defense Corps will conduct its first meeting of the year next Wednesday evening, Jan. 30, 8 o'clock, in the City Hall Council Chambers.

In calling the meeting Mayor William A. Kinney, as director, urged all division chiefs, area block wardens, and alternates to be present.

"It is extremely important that every member of our Civil Defense Corps . . . be present at this meeting," Mr. Kinney stated.

Among other business of the meeting will be the official seating of City Administrator R. Merritt Baker as the Civil Defense Corps' new executive officer.

CAHILL RENEWS APPEAL IN LETTER TO GOVERNOR

The City of Sierra Madre officially went on record Tuesday night as "demanding that the state do something" towards correcting the traffic hazards on Foothill at Baldwin and Michilinda. The action was recommended by Councilman Noren Eaton and quickly voted through by the other city fathers. Copies of the resolution will go to the County Board of Supervisors, the State Highway Commission and the governor of California.

William D. Cahill renewed his campaign this week to end the "death corner" hazard at Foothill boulevard and Baldwin avenue. His appeal—this time to California Governor Earl Warren—followed the traffic deaths Sunday of a mother and her 4-month-old son near the corner. It also followed by slightly more than a year other attempts to curb the menace—attempts made by Mr. Cahill through state and county traffic officials.

"I am appealing to you to correct a very bad situation that exists in our area," stated Mr. Cahill in his letter to Gov. Warren. He termed Baldwin at Foothill and Michilinda at Foothill "two dangerous intersections that are our outlets to the south."

Citing the increases in population and traffic, the local realtor pointed out that the Baldwin intersection is "extremely hazardous" since there is a large girls' school (Anoka) at this corner.

Mr. Cahill said Alma J. Wylie, director of the school, has written both the State Highway Commission and the Highway Patrol appealing for relief of the traffic hazard.

"And I have written the State Highway Commission in Los Angeles . . . and they have told me the accident frequency at this intersection does not demand action on their part," he continued. "To my knowledge . . ."

Inquest Today In Foothill Auto Deaths

An inquest into the traffic deaths Sunday of two Monrovia—a mother and her 4-month-old son—has been set for 1:30 p.m. today, Jan. 24, at Grant Chapel.

The mother and child were killed in a violent traffic accident near the "death corner," Baldwin avenue and Foothill boulevard.

Dead were Mrs. Dorothy Hayward, 1139 E. Orange, Monrovia, and her infant son, Paul.

Seriously injured in the collision were her husband, Ernest Paul Hayward, and two other children, Terry, 5, and Bruce, 3½. The survivors were termed in "satisfactory" condition at Huntington Hospital Monday.

The Haywards' car collided with an eastbound auto driven

MRS. YERDA ADAMS TO END 36 YEARS OF TEACHING

Ending 36 years of teaching, Mrs. Yerda (Roland) Adams last week submitted her resignation as a fourth grade teacher at Sierra Madre City School. Her retirement will become effective Tuesday, Jan. 29. Mrs. Adams, the "oldest" teacher in point of service at City School, came to Sierra Madre in 1913 and joined the public school teaching staff in 1915. In those days, she recalls, the school teaching staff and even the principal were changed.

"I think that's probably the only time something like that ever happened in this area," she remarked.

Mrs. Adams won the enduring gratitude of Sierra Madreans when she wrote the words to the Sierra Madre School Song. During her teaching career, she has served under eight different school superintendents and, of course, has seen countless changes in the physical appearance of the school.

Her 36 years of teaching has been almost continuous, except for a short time when she stopped long enough to become a mother. "And even during that period," she said, "I was doing some substitute teaching."

Mrs. Adams received her academic training at a New

INDO-CHINA MISSIONARIES SPEAK HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

Smith, veteran missionaries to West Indo-China, to the pulpit of Bethany Church for the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday evening, Jan. 27. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, professor of Bible at Fuller Theological Seminary of Pasadena, lists them as "one of the most remarkable and effective missionary couples of our generation."

Feature of the service will be their 30-minute, sound and color film, "Now We Live." This dramatic movie describes work of the Smiths among lepers in the jungles of Indo-China. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith will speak during the evening.

The Rev. Mr. Smith is the author of five books on missionary problems and anthropology. Mrs. Laura Smith also is an authoress, her most popular book being "Gongs in the Night," which tells of their missionary trail-blazing experiences in the jungles of Indo-China.

The pastor will be speaking at the regular 11 a.m. worship hour.

When the Joneses returned to their car, parked outside, they noticed the mirrors were missing. Mr. Jones estimated the total loss at $5.

Prank Causes Lima 'Flow'

That large amount of water flowing down Lima Friday afternoon—long after the storm—was caused by a so-called "prank."

Harvey Steinberger, 529 Mariposa, became curious about the flow and followed it up Lima to the Bailey Canyon Debris Basin. He said a man living at Carter and Lima reported seeing two boys running away from the area, and theorized that they dammed up the water with planks for awhile and then released it.

Officer H. S. Embree went up to the debris basin and found several men and children there. "No one seemed to know anything about the incident," he reported back.

Mr. Embree said he advised the children to leave the premises.

MARCH OF DIMES HELPS REDUCE POLIO DEATH RATE

1916 First major epidemic
(27,363 cases) recorded in U.S.

26.2% DIED

1949 Largest epidemic
(42,366 cases) ever recorded in U.S.

6.4% DIED

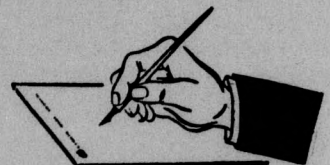

The significant reduction in the polio death rate during the past few decades is attributed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to two factors: 1) more accurate reporting of less serious polio cases in recent years and 2) the greater development and availability of improved treatment methods and equipment made possible in large part by the March of Dimes. January is 1952 March of Dimes month.

One from each classification will be chosen to perform with the orchestra at the Young Artists' Concert on Sunday afternoon, March 23, 1952, at the Monrovia-Duarte High School auditorium at 3 p.m. (If, in the opinion of the judges, no worthy representative of any classification qualifies, that classification will not be represented in the concert.)

McIntyre Teaches Public Relations

Public relations, a rapidly-growing field important to personnel in schools, private business, church and organizational leadership, and government positions will be taught again at Pasadena City College each Thursday evening during the second semester by Frank O. McIntyre, director of the public relations for the California Teachers Association.

Registration for the class may be made at the Extended Day Office, PCC. This is a non-credit course, and attendance is not required at all sessions. BUYS $1,000 BOND AT BATTLE FRONT

Sgt. Clarence L. Aldridge of Sheridan, Ark., expresses faith in his country in dual fashion—in fighting for it and in buying U. S. Defense Bonds. The Sgt. is shown above counting out $750 in military scrip to become the first man at the X Corps Command post in Korea to buy a $1,000 Defense Bond during the recent Bond Drive. Capt. Joseph S. Edwards, personnel adjutant, is shown serving as Bond officer.

Advertising Course Planned for Adults

A review of the principles and practices of modern advertising is incorporated in a course which starts Jan. 30 at Pasadena City College.

The course, offering practical information to business men and women, is being presented under the direction of John C. Moore, partner in the advertising firm of Aubrey, Moore and Wallace, in Chicago. Numerous prominent advertising men will be guest speakers during the class.

A Distributive Education Course, it will meet Wednesday evenings, 7 to 9:30 p.m., in Room 139-C at PCC.

New PE Rates Go Into Effect

Changes in certain Pacific Electric passenger motor coach fares became effective today, Jan. 24. Details of the revisions are listed in leaflets available on all vehicles and at ticket windows.

On the Los Angeles-to-Sierra Madre line, the fare between Lincoln Park (S.P. crossing) and La Senda (Garfield avenue) is increased from 15 cents to 20 cents.

On all Pacific Electric lines, round-trip tickets and present commutation books are being discontinued upon their expiration dates. A new 30-ride commutation book is being sold where the one-way fare is 40 cents or more.

Prospective Judges Must Take Exams

A qualifying examination for persons planning to run for judges of justice courts will be given Saturday, Feb. 16, at 9:30 a.m. at the county seat, according to information received today by the State Judicial Council.

Judges for all justice courts established in the county under the recent reorganization act are to be elected at the state election this year, and candidates for those offices are required by law to pass a qualifying examination before the election unless they are attorneys or incumbent judges of existing courts.

Persons wishing to take the examination must file written applications on approved forms in the office of the county clerk not later than Feb. 6.

Man Reduces Bulges in One Day

A prominent resident of our city claims to have the power of removing unsightly bulges in one day. He demonstrated his technique before an interested group yesterday.

His first step is to strip the subject. Then, taking the left arm, he covers it tightly with a three-inch strap. Over the strapping he wraps a burlap covering. On that goes a hair-like substance, then cotton and muslin, and finally a beautiful, modern fabric. . . . completely removing all bulges from the chair arm.

Mr. V. Keisel, meticulous owner of The Drapery Shop at 31 N. Baldwin, feels that his beautification methods should be of vital interest to all ladies concerned about their overstuffing. Phone CU. 5-1255. It's an ad.

Leaflet Says: 'Slow Traffic Keep Right'

Free distribution of a leaflet, "Slow Traffic Keep Right," which explains the new California Vehicle Code section governing slow-moving vehicles was started this week by the Traffic Education section of the Los Angeles Police Department.

Included in the new leaflet are diagrams, interpretations, and photographs describing how motorists proceeding at less than the normal speed of traffic—notwithstanding established speed limits—will be required by law to drive on the right-hand lane, except when overtaking other cars or preparing for left turns.

Sierra Madreans may get the leaflet plus a 35-page pamphlet, "Accidents Don't Happen," by sending name and address to "Slow Traffic Keep Right," Los Angeles Police Department, 411 E. First Street, Los Angeles 12.

Law Would Make Subdividers Post Low Flood Areas

Subdividers of land lying below flood control levels would have to post notice of such low level, if legislation planned for county sponsorship is approved by the State Legislature at its next session.

County supervisors last week mulled over the seriousness of the problem and requested that certain tract maps for subdivisions in known flood areas be referred back to the Regional Planning Commission for further study.

Under California State Division of Real Estate requirements, no provision is made for protection of buyers within flood areas.

It was pointed out that "we have tracts under development where property will become inundated by flood waters at a future date. By then the subdivider has his money and is gone, and the public officials get the blame for it."

Petty Thieves Like Cars Left On Dark Streets

Accessory thieves usually work on cars parked on streets, Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan warned residents this week. "And the darker the neighborhood the better they like it," he added.

The chief pointed out, though, that there was one exception to the "rule" last week. Hub caps were stripped Thursday night from a car parked in the front yard of B. H. Chamberlain, 398 W. Sierra Madre boulevard. But as a general rule, Mr. McMillan explained, the cars in driveways and garages are less apt to be molested.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sierra Madre NEWS:

The kindly, friendly helpfulness of folks almost passes all understanding. With the sudden loss of our son-in-law, Rudy Hartman Jr., the love and esteem in which he was held was reflected in a hundred ways by the many, many kindnesses showered upon his wife and daughter, the Hartman family, and ourselves. The thoughtful acts and offers of help almost overwhelmed us.

Then came the storm. Our daughter Doris Hartman and the Rudolph Hartmans Sr. were out of the city. Our alert Police Department called me at 1:30 a.m. to warn that Doris' home was threatened by the heavy flow of storm waters from Bailey Canyon. While I hurried there my wife sent out an SOS to some of Rudy's and our friends. To call out a man at 1:30 a.m.
into a pouring rain to save a neighbor's home from flood is a pretty severe test of friendship, but to a man they were on the job in minutes. Bob Thomas drove to the Street Department Warehouse and returned with a supply of sandbags while the rest of us piled lumber weighted with rocks as a barricade.

Then we all turned to and filled and piled sandbags until we had a dike high enough to hold out the flood. No damage resulted. To Kermit Turner, Gail Hersey, Rol Lewis, Spencer Edwards, Jack Thompson and Bob Thomas we owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid. Perhaps in some small way we in turn may be able to help others in time of trouble.

Our friends and neighbors make it evident to us that this pleasant town should be known as Sierra Madre, the Friendly Town.

Sincerely yours,
CARL COLT

Editor, Sierra Madre NEWS:

When the opportunity to elect a man of Lee Shippey's qualifications arises, the entire community should back him.
Let his fellow townsmen show their faith in him publicly.
Let them rally to his support. Now!

A man of Lee's integrity, personality, and wit can go far towards righting serious wrongs. In these critical times we need a voice in Congress. When Lee speaks, folks listen. Let's begin now to listen to his plans.

What do you say?

Who can stop him if we are behind him?

Very truly,

Mrs. Cedar's injuries were treated at St. Luke Hospital

Police said the accident occurred approximately 100 feet ed Mr. Cedar as saying that he sensed an accident ahead, jammed on his brakes, felt his car swerve to the left into the oncoming traffic and could remember nothing else until he regained consciousness lying on the pavement.

Mrs. Hayward reportedly was killed instantly in the wreck, and Paul died two hours later at a Pasadena hospital.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"GOOD MEN and TRUE"

THE TWO FUNDAMENTALS IN OUR AMERICAN SYSTEM
OF JUSTICE ARE: THE LEGAL PROVISION THAT A PERSON
ON TRIAL MUST BE PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL PROVEN GUILTY— AND THE RIGHT OF TRIAL BY JURY, WHICH PROTECTS THE INDIVIDUAL AND SAFEGUARDS SOCIETY AGAINST IRRESPONSIBLE POWER.

IT IS AN INTEGRAL PART OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP TO SUPPORT AND STRENGTHEN THIS SYSTEM OF JUSTICE BY SERVICE ON A JURY—TO REGARD IT AS A DUTY TO BE ACCEPTED WITH PRIDE AND EXERCISED WITH FULL REALIZATION THAT SUCH SERVICE IS VITAL TO THE MAINTENANCE OF DEMOCRACY.

SEAMAN RICHARD WILCOX
SERVES ABOARD FLAT-TOP

Richard E. Wilcox, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl
C. Wilcox, 159 W. Grandview, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier, USS Badoeng Strait, with the United Nations forces in the Far East. The Badoeng Strait is engaged in close air support of UN troops on the Korean peninsula, and anti-submarine patrols of coastal waters. The veteran flat-top is on its second tour of duty in the Far Eastern area.

Seaman Wilcox joined the Navy in Sept., 1950, and attended school at San Diego to become a sonar operator. Prior to entering the Navy he attended Sierra Madre School, Wilson Junior High School and Pasadena City College.

He recently wrote his family that a lady correspondent for Collier's magazine was aboard the Badoeng Strait to do a story on the ship. While there she was flown via helicopter to a submarine for further material. The helicopter crashed while attempting a landing near the submarine, but all aboard the plane were saved. The story on the Ba-doeng Strait as well as the helicopter mishap is schedued to appear in Collier's at a future date.

Seaman Wilcox left for overseas duty in October, 1951, and will return to the states sometime this coming March.

LIONS CLUB ANNOUNCES
ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

Winners in the Lions Club's essay contest on "Learning to Live Together" were announced today by Ralph (Pappy) Welch, contest chairman.

They are Marlene Smith, 115 E. Laurel, first place; Catherine Franco, 409 N. Mountain Trail, second place, and Sigrid Wiggins, 206 Oak Meadow Road, third place.

The winners will read their essays at the Lions' meeting this evening, Jan. 24, at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, and receive their cash awards.

Special guests also this evening will be School Superintendent Charles A. Skutt and several City School pupils. The students will give brief talks on "Why I Am Glad to Be an American."

Essays were judged on grammatical construction, originality, clarity and how convincing they were. The winning essays follow:

First Place—Marlene Smith

Only when men live together in true brotherly love and cease to depend on arms, armies and allies but rather on love of neighbor and fear of God will there be peace.

Today there is an organized opposition to democracy and freedom. Only when that influence is removed will there be lasting peace.

Second Place—Catherine Franco

Learning to live together starts at home where respect for our parents and thoughtfulness to our friends and neighbors is of prime importance. A formula of family living should be followed throughout the world. Remember the golden rule: "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

Third Place—Sigrid Wiggins

Living together in the world is important. We must not be selfish, but take our share of responsibility. Good citizenship and an understanding for others helps in better living.

Our schools have student government where we learn this and also to regard others' opinions in school and world affairs.

notes that action must be

Mr. Cahill asked, of course, that the governor help by having these intersections signalized.

Concerning the wreck Sunday, he emphasized that he did not know who was at fault,
"but certainly traffic control
... might have prevented this unfortunate accident."

Mr. Cahill urges Sierra Mad-

Fred Harvey food to choose from.""I like privacy, so I travel Santa Fe

a compartment or drawing room.""For seeing the sights, up close, the big non-toggling windows are great. And what sights, along Santa Fe's colorful Southwest route!"No wonder more and more wise travelers "go Santa Fe

FIRE FLAMES

For the first time in a long time, attendance was very poor for the recent drill and meeting. This was due mostly to sickness. Several of the fellows had to stay at home on account of colds. 'Twas a bad night to be out at any rate, and those that sought the warmth of home were not too dumb.

A very great responsibility rests on the shoulders of the members of the fire department and it ill-behooves any of us to place the load onto someone else.

Many things must be done about the fire department. Neglect may mean disaster. It is sincerely hoped that members attend regularly and remain interested.

It is realized that the yuletide was strenuous with the nights out after a hard day's work and all that. However, a fire-fighter must be tough and we are—hey brothers?

We asked for rain, and, this time, got it. Mo Thomas, one of our most loyal fire-fighters, is among those who suffered loss, due to the weather. The side of the hill on which his house stands, moved with the water. The house now is very near to the edge.

Far below his house stands the home of Louis George, another of our faithful smoke eaters. He has been yelling for some fill dirt and the rains brought it to him at the expense of Mo.

He is now doing everything possible to prevent Mo's house from falling into his bathroom. Louie said he didn't mind the Thomases coming in for a visit, but he objects to their bringing their house along.

It is hard to imagine a fire getting started in all this dampness—but it can happen. It is less likely now than later. That is why we ask that residents who anticipate burning something in the open—get in touch with the fire department soon, or before the dry season arrives.

The base of your outdoor burning is not the most likely spot for an unwanted fire to get started. We must bear in mind that sparks or embers from an open fire will soar to unknown regions. Many puzzling fires come from this source. This will help explain the urgent need for burning while the vicinity is very damp, including the shingles of your neighbor's roof.

It is because of our carefulness in this matter that we are able to report such a low fire loss for so many years. Stay with it.

Details Set For Mothers' Polio March

Sierra Madre's "Mothers' March on Polio" is scheduled for next Thursday, Jan. 31, from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

At that time several hundred local mothers will tour the entire city, making last-minute collections for the March of Dimes. Although armed with pots and pans, the women insist these will be used for collection, not intimidation.

All Sierra Madre residents who wish to make a final donation to the polio campaign are asked to turn on their porch lights during the 2½-hour clean-up effort.

The mothers will stop at all houses having lighted porch lights. Co-chairmen of the Mothers' March are Mrs. J. J. Butler and Mrs. Charles Rizzo.

The March of Dimes drive in Sierra Madre was reported "doing very nicely" this week, and more than $1000 had been collected by Tuesday.

Mrs. Butler said the following women would be in charge of various blocks in town during the Mothers' March:

Mesdames Emile Smith, Roland Adams, W. Z. Bancroft, Andrew Steiner, Henry Bowling, Charles Morgan, C. Johnson, Samuel Kirk, Ernest Maurin, Elvin Beard, Robert Orf, Norman Brooks, E. V. reorganized a group of men, and, despite the intense hostile . . . fire, led them in another attack on the hostile positions.

"After a fierce battle he successfully led his men in securing the vital stronghold. Lieutenant Morgan then reorganized the elements of his unit and, through his superb leadership, led them in the attack on toward the battalion's main objective."

"The gallantry in action and selfless devotion to duty displayed by Lieutenant Morgan on this occasion reflects great credit upon himself and the military service."

CITY FIREMEN HAVE BUSY TIME SUNDAY

Sierra Madre volunteer firemen chalked up a busy weekend, with two alarms disturbing their "day of rest" Sunday.

The first call was at 1:18 a.m. Sunday morning, and was a palm tree on fire at Santa Anita Court and Rancho Road. No suspects were listed in the blaze, which apparently was started by vandals.

Firemen were called out again at 11:55 a.m., this time to the home of former City Councilman and Mrs. Alexander Black, 445 E. Highland. Smoke pouring out of the walls was traced down to an overheated wall heater.

Police Officer T. O. Harte kept the blaze under control with buckets of water until firemen arrived. Lack of proper ventilation was blamed for the overheating.

BOYS 'EXPLORE' EMPTY HOUSE

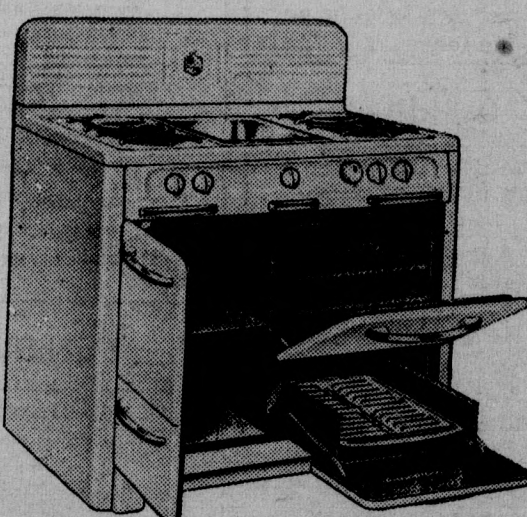

Five youngsters were interrupted Sunday in their "exploring" of the unoccupied house at 44 Esperanza.

Police had gone to the house on a tip from Norm Jensen, 48½ Esperanza, who said juveniles frequently "break in and destroy property."

Officers Ralph Twedell and T. Harte found the boys going through rooms of the house. They were described as between 5 and 7 years of age. Police said the boys insisted this was their first visit to the house, and promised it would be their last.

Go to church next Sunday.

Second Big Storm Inflicts Some Damage

The second heavy rainstorm of last week left Sierra Madreans damp and bedraggled, but for the most part property damage was reported not too extensive.

Rock and mud slides disrupted traffic on Sturtevant Drive, Oakdale Road, Alta Vista Drive, Elm and Skyland Drive.

Damage was reportedly heavy at the homes of Marvin E. Thomas, 381 N. Mount Wilson Trail, and Courtney L. Miles, 833 Skyland Drive.

Driveways and walks on Lima street were washed out, and much soil eroded on Michillinda. A "bad washout" was reported on Wilcox Road, and sandbags were needed to stem the flow on Orange Grove, between Rancho Road and Baldwin.

City employees were up most the nights during the big storm clearing clogged storm drain gratings and checking property damage.

Heavy damage was reported again in the Coronet Homes tract of the Upper Hastings Ranch. Flowing mud all but blocked off Alegria and one or two other streets of the development.

In its fight against polio, the March of Dimes draws no race, creed or color lines. Its object is to combat polio wherever it strikes.

Short Change 'Sharpie' Hits Local Store

A short change "artist" nipped the Royal Drug store for $5 Saturday noon, and shortly afterwards the same man apparently pulled the same trick at a Monrovia department store.

Clerk Neva M. Clarke, 17, said a man came into the drug store with nine or ten $1 bills in his hand and asked a $5 bill for five of the $1's.

When Miss Clarke handed him the five, the man then said he would like a $10 bill instead and gave her what she took to be the $5 bill and five ones.

She gave him the $10 but then became suspicious just as the man left the store.

A quick check of the till by Owner Sam Perloff confirmed the painful hunch—yes, they were short $5.

Police quickly combed the business district, but the sharpie already had made good his escape.

Monrovia police reported later in the afternoon that a man answering the same general description victimized a store there. He is described as 5 feet, 8 inches, 160 pounds, between 25 and 35 years old, combed-back black hair, and was wearing a light green jacket and brown slacks.
